

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates and at the same time it improves the digestion.

SHE SAYS "DON'TS" NEVER SAVED A GIRL

New York, Oct. 20.—New York has safer streets for girls at night than any other city in the world.

This bit of information fell from the lips of Dr. Anna Dwyer, member of the Chicago Moral Commission, recently appointed by Mayor Thompson. Dr. Dwyer is devoting much of her time in New York to studying the general moral condition of the city.

"Men do not speak to girls on New York streets, not because the blocks are well policed, but because they have been taught to mind their own business," Dr. Dwyer continued. "It is Chicago's disgrace that we have yet to accomplish what New York has been doing for the last twenty-five years."

"I am tired to death of hearing so much mandarin talk of sex-hygiene, as though that would ever save a girl."

"Stop saying 'don'ts' to girls. 'Don'ts' never saved any girl. Girls want action, not eternal lecturing."

"Less talk about sex-hygiene will make cleaner-minded little girls and nobler women later on."

"Be careful of the books your girls read, the plays they see and the moving pictures they attend."

"Answer briefly the questions your girls will ask as she grows up from babyhood. But don't tell her too much. Sex-hygiene means knowledge and knowledge never protects. That's a big fallacy too many mothers and social workers have had to repent far too often."

"A girl's best safeguard is her companionship with her mother."

GIRL ATTACKS MAN SHE SAYS WRONGED HER

FLIES AT HIS THROAT IN COURT ROOM, SHE CREATES SENSATION

Oklahoma City, Oct. 20.—That "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," was aptly illustrated in Justice of Peace T. F. Donnell's court Tuesday morning when raven tressed, black eyed, pretty and petite 18-year old Lula Brown of Bartlesville, attacked her alleged seducer, Wiley Beasley, an attorney. Shrieking with pent up rage the young woman struck Beasley in the face, on the neck and shoulders.

Seeking to escape the wrath of the girl he is said to have doubly wronged—first by seduction under promise of marriage and later by procurement of a criminal operation on her—Beasley dodged here and there and finally found refuge behind attorneys. A. W. Brown, the girl's father, and a sister, finally succeeded in quieting her after Beasley had been hustled from the courtroom by his counsel.

At the back of the room Miss Brown and her sister sat while attorneys were arguing for the dismissal and continuance of the case in which Dr. Robert Walker, Oklahoma City physician, and Wiley Beasley, lawyer, are jointly charged with having performed a criminal operation upon the body of Lula Brown. Justice Donnell had continued the hearing until next Tuesday.

Man Smiles.

Beasley with a nonchalant air and a smile on his countenance didn't even look toward the girl as he started to pass from the forum. As he came alongside the victim of his alleged wrongdoing, she arose from her chair and a stinging blow in the face was his reward.

"There's the biggest liar that's ever been in any county," screamed the young woman.

Rough or Greasy Skin For Sallow, Blotchy.

Some skins require constant grooming to keep them from becoming oily, muddy, blotchy or rough, or if such condition has developed, to overcome it. In such chronic cases it is particularly inadvisable to keep piling on cosmetics which clog the pores, collect dust and dirt, making the complexion worse than ever. It's a lot more sensible to use ordinary mercurized wax, which literally absorbs a bad complexion. Apply the wax like cold cream, before retiring; next morning, in washing it off, you'll wash away fine, flour-like particles of the unsightly cuticle. Repeat for a week or two and you'll have an entirely new skin—soft, satiny, spotless and beautiful as a child's. One ounce of mercurized wax, procurable at any druggist's, is all you'll need.

If the skin be wrinkled or flabby, here's the best possible remedy: Mix 1/2 pint witch hazel and 1/2 ounce powdered exfolite and use as a face bath. It works like a miracle, yet is entirely harmless.

"You are a liar and you know it," she said to Beasley as she hit him again on the neck.

Beasley's color turned from a pallid whiteness to a fiery red. He ducked out of the way as the girl attempted to strike him again.

Justice of the Peace Donnell, momentarily thunderstruck, recovered sufficiently to rap for order. Then it was the girl's father and sister ushered her to a seat where she sat trembling as Beasley's lawyers shouted him through the door.

It was the most exciting scene that has been staged in a local courtroom for a long time. Scores of people attracted by the cries of the girl and the noise of the commotion rushed from all parts of the Security building to the Donnell office.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS IN OKLAHOMA

Edmond, Oct. 20.—In 1915 Kentucky had the great number of 208,084 above ten years of age who were so unfortunate as to be unable to read or write. Mrs. Clara Wilson Stewart tried the moonlight school plan of teaching these folk; it worked and today twenty-four other states have followed Kentucky's example. What about Oklahoma?

She has 67,567 persons above ten years old who cannot read or write, of which number 28,707 are people of voting age. Also 17,012 of these are white people, 7,396 negroes and 4,299 Indians and foreigners. What are we going to do about it? We are going to wipe out all this illiteracy by means of moonlight schools. What are moonlight schools? Simply schools taught at night for the benefit of those persons who cannot afford to attend in the daytime. What do they cost? Nothing. They are taught by volunteer teachers who nobly offer their services in order that those who are so unfortunate among us may be relieved from the bondage of ignorance. How do we know that these old men and women can be taught at their advanced ages? We have tried it.

Last year Central Normal organized the Oklahoma Literacy League and out of the number who formed its membership forty-one taught moonlight schools the past year, enrolling 4,033 pupils, 114 being above the regular age and 273 being neither able to read nor write when the school began. Every man and woman of these 273 could read and write and many could add, subtract and do other simple problems in arithmetic when the term closed.

Oklahoma will try to get every one of her illiterate people to attend moonlight schools the coming year. Central Normal claims to be the originator of the movement and will use all of her energy to make it a success. President Evans, Prof. Wood, President of the Oklahoma Rural School Improvement Commission and every member of the faculty will do their part in such a way that every pupil of Central will go out ready to teach every person in his district, whether within or above the school age. "No too too arduous, no service too exacting if the children are to be helped, the people to be strengthened," this is Central's slogan for the coming educational campaign.

FORMER NEW HAVEN HEAD WILL TESTIFY

WILL TELL WORKINGS OF OLD DIRECTORATE: IS IMMUNE FROM PROSECUTION

New York, Oct. 20.—Charles S. Melton, former president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad company, will take the stand late today as a witness for the government in the trial of William Stockwell, Lewis Cass Lodge, Edward D. Ribbons and eight other defendants charged as directors of the road with monopolizing transportation traffic of New England by unlawful methods. Through Mr. Melton the government expects to prove a large majority of the alleged unlawful acts committed by the New Haven directors which Robert L. Blatts, attorney for the government, has for two days been describing to the jury. Mr. Blatts completed his address today.

The former president of the New Haven, whose testimony before the federal grand jury and the Interstate Commerce Commission gained him immunity in the case, is prepared without reserve, the agents believe, to disclose publicly for the first time, the full story of the numerous transactions by which the alleged monopoly was effected, in so far as they came to his knowledge. He will be cross examined for the defense by Richard V. Lindsay, regarded as one of the ablest corporation lawyers in the country, and those who have heard Mr. Melton testify in other proceedings, look for a keen battle of wits between the two men.

Fraternal homes under state grand lodge supervision are generally regarded as most valuable things for any city. Guthrie should offer liberal inducements.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and California's oldest doctor, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.
No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth," pore and skin—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.
Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

When Baby Has the Croup.
When a mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health, straggling, for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. Obtainable everywhere.

What is Your Blood Pressure?

The age of the 40s is a critical period in every person's life. And one of the most common things that make it critical is increased "blood pressure" with its accompanying "hardening of the arteries."

Scientists have fully proven that increased blood pressure is caused by poisonous deposits in the delicate tissues of the arteries. One of the chief agents in this process is coffee, with its poisonous drug, caffeine.

"A man is as old as his arteries," life insurance companies say, and the Blood Pressure Test is one of the principal factors nowadays in determining a "risk." How do you stand?

If there is any doubt about coffee's hurting—if you have frequent headaches, biliousness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or heart flutter—try a 10 days' change to
